

Becoming a sacred community

A sacred community is centered on the core certainty that all lives are sacred, that all people are loved by God. Dr. King held that this was not some sort of utopian and unreachable ideal but can be achieved in our local, national, and international communities through an unshakable commitment to nonviolence and justice.

- Monday January 21, 2019 (MLK holiday) from noon to 3:00pm.
- We will begin with a potluck lunch – bring a family-sized portion of something to share.
- The program is held at OMI.
- Contact any of the OMI clergy if there are questions.
